THE PREVENTION OF BLACKMARKETING AND MAINTENANCE OF SUPPLIES OF ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1982

(AS INTRODUCED IN THE RAJYA SABHA ON 23 FEBRUARY, 1982)

A BILL

further to amend the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Thirty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities (Amendment) Act, 1982.

2. Amendment of section 7.—In section 7 of the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980 (2 of 1980), in sub-section (1),—

- (a) for the words “appropriate Government” the words, brackets and figures “the appropriate Government or an officer mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 3, as the case may be”, shall be substituted;
- (b) after the words, “that Government”, the words “or officer” shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under section 7 of the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980, action against a person who has absconded or is concealing himself with a view to avoiding the execution of a detention order can be initiated only by the appropriate Government. This leads to delay in cases where the order of detention is made by a District Magistrate or a Commissioner of Police, referred to in section 3 (2) of the Act. Under the corresponding provisions in the National Security Act, 1980 (vide section 7 thereof), power is conferred on the officers empowered to order detention to take action against absconding persons. In that context and keeping in view the need for expeditious action against absconding persons, it is proposed to amend section 7 of the Prevention of Blackmarketing and Maintenance of Supplies of Essential Commodities Act, 1980, so as to enable officers referred to in section 3 (2) of that Act also to exercise the powers in relation to absconding persons.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the above object.

NEW DELHI:

The 6th February, 1982.

ANNEXURE

EXTRACTS FROM THE PREVENTION OF BLACKMARKETING AND MAINTENANCE OF SUPPLIES OF ESSENTIAL COMMODITIES ACT, 1980 (7 OF 1980)

7. Powers in relation to absconding persons.—(1) If appropriate Government has reason to believe that a person in respect of whom a detention order has been made has absconded or is concealing himself so that the order cannot be executed, that Government may—

- (a) make a report in writing of the fact to a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class having jurisdiction in the place where the said person ordinarily resides; and thereupon the provisions of sections 82, 83, 84 and 85 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) shall apply in respect of the said person and his property as if the order directing that he be detained were a warrant issued by the Magistrate;
- (b) by order notified in the Official Gazette direct the said person to appear before such office, at such place and within such period as may be specified in the order; and if the said person fails to comply with such direction he shall, unless he proves that it was not possible for him to comply therewith and that he had, within the period specified in the order, informed the officer mentioned in the order of the reason which rendered compliance therewith impossible and of his whereabouts, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.
